

JUDD LEIGHTON SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
SOUTH BEND

Dear Prospective Student,

Congratulations on the successful completion of your high school education! In this present time of the Covid-19 pandemic, this is not an insignificant feat and you are truly to be commended for this accomplishment.

As interim dean of the Judd Leighton School of Business and Economics at IU South Bend, I am excited to learn of your interest in joining us. I know that you have many educational opportunities to evaluate, of which the Leighton School is just one. I truly believe, if you consider the following advantages of attending our School, we will be at the top of your list.

The Leighton School of Business and Economics is a business school that offers:

- AACSB International accreditation, an achievement only five percent of business schools worldwide and just two business programs in north-central Indiana have attained.
- affordable tuition for any of our 9 undergraduate degree programs you choose to pursue.
- professors who know your name and care about your success.
- professional academic advisors to help guide you to graduation.
- a small campus environment and plenty of engaging activities.
- coursework that is engaging, relevant, and interactive.
- internships and experiential learning opportunities that put your classroom knowledge, skills, and abilities to work in real businesses.
- small class sizes, allowing you to really get to know your faculty and fellow students.
- multiple scholarships that are available only to business students.
- a director of career planning and networking opportunities with employers that prepare you to be a competent and effective employment seeker with the skills to have a successful and meaningful career in business.
- degrees that carry the prestigious “Indiana University” designation.

If you would like more information about the Leighton School, and how we can help you succeed, please visit our website (business.iusb.edu).

I look forward to meeting with you personally or virtually to discuss your goals and aspirations.

Best Wishes,

Tracey A. Anderson
